

Key To The City

Sorry

I know that you're somewhere out there, out there
Which makes it even harder to pretend that
You're not in this city
You are the key to my city, to my city
You said I always look like a deer in the headlights
I still look lost
In this city, in this city
You are the key to my city, to my city
I know that you're somewhere out there, out there
Getting fucked in someone else's bed
You said I always look like a deer in the headlights
I still look lost
In this city, in this city
You are the key to my city, to my city
To my city (Ten, nine, eight, seven, six)
You are the key to my city, to my city, to my city

If you're gonna leave, I don't care
Hope you make a lot of rich friends out there
Bet a lot of those friends turn bad out there, out there, out there
So it's not me, I don't care
Go and have another hot girl affair
But a lot of good bitches turn bad out there, out there, out there
I know what you're doing it for
If it's gonna be for the money and the travel

I know that you're somewhere out there, out there
Getting fucked in someone else's bed
I know that you're sitting in the cinema
With someone else's arm 'round your neck (Your neck)
I know that you're out there, out there, out there
Still, I pretend that
You are the key to my city, to my city, to my city
You are the key to my city, to my city, to my city
This city in the city (Six, five)
This city in the city, in the city, in the- (Four, three, two)
This city in the city (Six, five)
This city in the city, in the city, in the city (Four, three, two)

Everyone's playing their own games, sideways
People don't feel the same always
If you're gonna leave, I don't care
Hope you make a lot of rich friends out there
Bet a lot of those friends turn bad out there, out there, out there (Everyone feels the same)
So it's not me, I don't care
Go and have another hot girl affair
But a lot of good bitches turn bad out there, out there, out there
