

Right Round The Clock

Sorry

I go to the same spot every night
Wanna get in your head
You just want to get out of it
Say so many things with those reckoning eyes
Wanna get in your head
You just want to get out of it

She rolls around with an entourage
She's all dolled (Dressed) up like a movie star
With those flash, flash eyes from behind the bar
With those fuck me eyes (Eyes, eyes, eyes, eyes)

You drive yourself crazy right 'round the clock
Got crazy temptation for you, marigold
But she don't know love, far from it
But she don't know love

No you don't feel proud in your Sunday best
And you wanna go sulk where you know she'll be there
(To talk to) To see
(How hung) How hung up you can be
'Cause she runs circles around you
She don't even have a clue
What's the lowest thing of all
Is she'll never even know just how you feel

Put her in your movie
Will that make her real?
I'll put her in my movie
To make her real

I'm feeling kinda crazy, I'm feeling kinda mad
The dreams in which we're famous are the best I've ever had
I'm feeling kinda crazy, I'm feeling kinda mad
The dreams in which we're famous are the best I've ever had
You're the best I've ever had
You're the best I've ever had

Have you seen yourself today?
You don't look great, set yourself straight
I feel good, but so alone
I feel great, just take me home
The people's champ is failing me
I'll stay around, but just to leave
The future's bright, or barely there
Can't tell tonight, or even care

Can you just
Love, love, love me?
Can you just
Love, love, love me?

You drive yourself crazy
Right 'round the clock
Got crazy temptations for your marigold
But she don't know love, far from it
But she don't know love

You drive yourself crazy
(Love, love, love, love)
'Cause your marigold is the only thing you've got
But she don't know love, far from it
But she don't know love
