

Separate

Sorry

I know I'm separate now
Feel like I'm the salt and you're the water spinnin' 'round
I know I'm separate now
I know I'm separate now

I like the way that the light glaze on my face
As I sit on a night train
I like to think that I'm walkin' somewhere
Even when I walk in circles
I like the pain of the weight in my arms
I do weights 'cause I wanna feel strong
I know I'm separate now
I know I'm separate now

There's a new talk, new talk in the town (T-T-T-T, T-T-T-T)
Want it to be morning then the morning comes around
Dropped a lump of sugar see how that expands out
I know I'm separate now

Take a good aim to shoot the sun down
Had you come back 'round once you fall-
Had you come 'round-
Had you come back 'round once you fall out
I know I'm sep-a-rate now
Feel like I'm the- And you're the- Runnin' out
I know I'm separate now
I know I'm separate now
Take a good aim to shoot the sun down
Know I'm separate now
Now, now
Down
Down
Now

Take a good aim to shoot the sun down
It took a good aim to shoot the sun down
I know I'm separate now
