Who that creeping up the window of your fire escape
I'ma burn your house on fire like a fireplace
Who that creeping up the window of your fire escape
I'ma burn your house on fire like a fireplace

Send them body snatchers up in your crib
Probably got a dagger up in your ribs
Poppin' molls after, uh, I'm so smiz
We gon' probably snatch him up, hide the kid
Probably moving backwards, uh, fuck what I did
Polly want them crackers up, they in the fridge
Oppositions interfering
Have your fucking family writing in their composition, tearing
Listen, I'm a brazy baby, sad that, uh, nobody
Long nose on my baby, uh, .380 like it's Scottie Pippen
I'm the boogie, boogie, boogie, boogie, boogie man
Wiping boogie, boogie, boogies on my hoodie, man
No, you just a pussy, pussy, not no Superman
Please don't push me, push me, I might shoot a man

Who that creeping up the window of your fire escape
I'ma burn your house on fire like a fireplace
Who that creeping up the window of your fire escape
I'ma burn your house on fire like a fireplace

Ask myself, is this illegal?
By my belt, a Desert Eagle
Bodies rotten, smell the seagull
I'm just tryna help my people
Tell myself that I don't need you
Death is coming, I don't see you
Poking you up with the needle
Holes in you that I could see through
Seen you post a 100K up on your Instagram
Told my shooter, undelay I'm not no minute man
You could die a 100 ways, it's not no difference, man
Bitch, I got a 100 K's right in my Sprinter van

Who that creeping up the window of your fire escape
I'ma burn your house on fire like a fireplace
