

Freeloader

Soul Asylum

She said get out (get out)
Get out while you can
Should I stay, should I fight
I guess I'm not your man
I admit, I was broken with despair
So I quit, on my dreams
And I spit, on everything I believed in

'Cause I'm a freeloader
Don't know where, to begin
Did I lose, did I win
Should I roll

Ooh the loneliness
Ooh the shame
Don't call me Mister Pitiful
I'm changing my name

Like a dog, in the dark
On the side of the road
All the things that could go wrong
Already have

I'm a freeloader
Don't know where to begin
Let me in it's getting colder

Ooh the loneliness
Ooh the shame
All points and in between
Should I go, should I stay

Yes, I'm a freeloader
Should I walk
Should I run
