

The Only Thing I'm Missing

Soul Asylum

All this place is missing
All my life I'm wishing
The only thing I'm missing, is you

Man, I must've missed out on getting fucked in LA
I must've missed out on the scene in New York
I must've done something wrong somehow
I fucked up somehow

I dug my own grave
There's still time to walk away
I make my peace, anyhow

All this place is missing
All my life I'm wishing
The only thing I'm missing, is you

Oh, you know it's all, shades of gray
I missed out on the things I wanted to say
It's all red tape, and red flags

All this place is missing
All my life I'm wishing
The only thing I'm missing, is you

All this place is missing
All my life I'm wishing
The only thing I'm missing, is you

I know I missed out on, another day
Someday things I would go and go my way
I'm tired of missing out tonight
