

Whatcha Need

Soul Asylum

He spraypainted his wardrobe black
To make the scene
He special ordered boots and hat
From a magazine

Say hello to the... the underground
Say hello for me

You make believe the end is coming
You'll be leaving, don't stop running

You can have your bullets back
Go back to your chicken shack
You can scare the daylights out of me
If that's whatcha need

She started dating men in black
And circus freaks
She tied their hands behind their backs
And left them there for weeks

Say hello to your... your mom and dad
Say hello for me

It's strange to me to hurt somebody
Strange to me that no one's coming

Orchestrating your attack
Disappear and fade to black
You can scare the daylights out of me
If that's whatcha need

If that's whatcha need

The light came crawling through the cracks
And it reminded me
That I forgot to call you back
And that you're mad at me

Say hello to your... your bitter friends
Say hello for me

Take your pills and throw 'em back
Watch yourself fall through the cracks
You could scare the daylights out of me
If that's whatcha need

If that's whatcha need (×3)
