

Turn Your Back

Souldrainer

You call yourself a human when there is no humanity
You pray about your life

You just turn your back, beaten, blue and sore
The world is turning black

Ripping, body shreds apart
Twisting, pain inside the heart
You don't care, you won't be near
Suck it out without a thought of share
Ripping, body shreds apart
Twisting, pain inside the heart
You don't care, you won't be near
Suck it out with selfishness

I can remember you
I know who you are
I've seen you before, you took my soul apart
I can remember you
I know who you are
I've seen you before, you took my soul apart
I remember you
I don't care
I've seen you before
You took my soul apart

When you're alone I won't be there for you
No one will ease your pain

You'll be screaming loud of agony
I'm waiting for your death

Ripping, body shreds apart
Twisting, pain inside the heart
You don't care, you won't be near
Suck it out without a thought of share
Ripping, body shreds apart
Twisting, pain inside the heart
You don't care, you won't be near
Suck it out with selfishness

I can remember you
I know who you are
I've seen you before, you took my soul apart
I can remember you
I know who you are
I've seen you before, you took my soul apart
I remember you
I don't care
I've seen you before
You took my soul apart
