

Evil Empowered

Soulfly

Bow down
To the greatest corrupter
The second coming
Of the antichrist unearthed
Live with a curse
Kill in the name of god
The devil's won

Knife in the back
We ignored the truth
Can you see through the veil that covers you?

Evil in place of power

Awoke by a thief
In the night of retribution
Pandemic welcoming
Of your final solution
We are cursed
An idol to be your god
The devil's won

Knife in the back
We ignored the truth
Can you see through the veil that covers you?

Evil in place of power

Knife in the back
We ignored the truth
Can you see through the veil that covers you?

Evil in place of Power, power, power
Evil in place of power
