

Superstition

Soulfly

Take away my pride
Leave nothing behind
Tear apart what you believe

Fate comes calling you, beware... beware

Superstition spoken in tongues
Defeated, broken, mangled and torn
Far beyond all the things that you know
Superstition - harder than stone

Wall to wall is where you tread
Your words of dust say everything
Like dying flames, the dread descends
Hold your heart in your bloody hands

Superstition

Nothing is what it seems
Tunnel visions - mind attraction
Beyond the things you know
Destination - pain reaction

Fate comes calling you, beware... beware

Superstition spoken in tongues
Defeated, broken, mangled and torn
Far beyond all the things that you know
Superstition - harder than stone
