

The Damage Done

Soulfly

In the ruins of the world I see a reflection
Darkened shades of what the earth used to be
We brought the storm ourselves
This human spawned hell
Justified with emptied words
Denial worn just like a crown

Distant noises
Chanting voices
Lifeless hopeless
The damage done

In despair of time
The secrets and the lies
Echos in the fire
Raining hazard filth

Distant noises
Chanting voices
Lifeless hopeless
The damage done

I see the ruins of the world
See the remnants of the storm
See mutation I abstain
Hear creation cry in pain

Commit the sin
Nature's war
Lifeless, hopeless
The damage done

Rip the roots
Of the holy ground
Lifeless, hopeless
The damage done
