

The Chosen One

Soulitude

Nobody seems to believe what I say
I swear that I am not insane
No wall, no straitjacket can't stop me anymore
The arrival is closer I'm ready to go

I know they're coming
I heed the call
Now I'm gonna leave this world
To sail beyond the stars

My time has come I am the chosen one
Eager to reach my new home
This planet is dying and it's time to go
I'm sorry I pray for you all
