The End You'll Only Know At the End

Soulspell

Dear, I know how lost you are
In this inner war
But I don't know
If there's such a key
To unlock this door

They light their candles as alibi
Just small excuses for all their crimes
This shadow will chase you
Even at night
Count on me to fight

You're not alone in this hell
Together we are stronger here
Like a compass and a square
Poor human time won't tell
Don't think time will tell
The end you'll only know at the end

Son I'm here
I brought something useful
The sphere

This can't be real
Is it true?
My friends are with me
And we are just coming for you
A never ending dark sea
Ten thousand hungry gargoyles
Are marching for doom

You're not alone in this hell
Together we are stronger here
Like a compass and a square
Poor human time won't tell
Don't think time will tell
The end you'll only know at the end

You're not alone in this hell
Together we are stronger here
Like a compass and a square
Poor human time won't tell
Don't think time will tell
The end you'll only know at the end
The end you'll only know at the end

Stop you claim for light
You must live your fight
The end you'll only know at the end
You can just walk on fire
You can untune this choir
