

Watch me, I'm happy by myself
When I think what I am
I feel so good
And I know for sure
That God created me for some reason
And he created this world
Specially for me
Watch me... I am a lord
...I am... a slop filling this hole

"Try not to move
Searching the truth
It isn't correct
When puppet doubts
Lock yourself inside
Being own guide
Eyes in one point
On inner side of eyelids"

I am here to supreme the world
And I hold every link

There are two sides
Of links of supremacy
I hold one
And I lunatic in dream
I hold one end
But what's on other side
And who is really master, who's puppet?
(And where is really control?)
