

Silence

Soulstice

Can you hear me?
My weak voice?
Can you, talk to confused one?
Please tell me what I am
And what I have to do...
Put my life in simple order
Make my soul compliant to you
Lead me right
Let my mind be weary no more

{silence}{silence}

Now I'm screaming to you up there
I'm begging you on my knees
Show me truths that I could follow
Send a sign for my free will
Don't close your eyes
Don't laugh, don't sneer
Let me pose to rip my guilts
Let me follow you blindly
Give me just a simple truth

One truth
One way to go through
A heart in place of stone
A faith
A life to live straight
No doubt when something's wrong
Set light
To make my steps shure
A bless to do what's right
Give me
All things I need now
A right to do what's right

{silence}{still silence...}
{please break this silence}
{take my fears away}

I am waiting for one your word
On my knees before you, lord
Face in dust while my body's rusting
Digging grave until I die

Don't close your eyes
Don't close your ears
Look at me, and see my tears
Hear my wishes faced to you
Make my life worthy to do
