

EXIT

So!YoON!

Call my name instead of dreaming
Dreams that we had is real
Speak as loud as I can hear
Decorate your mind don't feel guilty
'Cause it's no one's fault
Someone had to bring it up
And you're done all goodbyes
Now all we gotta do is so clear

All we gotta do is so clear

Exit
Where's it?
It's closing
Cruel to me
Slowly
Getting used to it
Somehow it shines a light on me

Exit
Where's it?
It's closing
Cruel to me
Slowly
Getting used to it
Somehow it shines a light on me

Call my name instead of dreaming
All my way is getting dark
Speak as loud as I can hear
Before I go def in the dark
'Cause it's no one's fault
Someone had to bring it up
And you're done all goodbyes
Now all we gotta do is so clear

All we gotta do is so clear

Tongue-in-cheek comfort and pities
I get consoled by late apologies
Yeah, I just miss how I used to be

Bygone days of the whole galaxy
Why no one cares?
Is it all meaningless?
Yeah, I just miss how we used to be

Exit
Where's it?
It's closing
Cruel to me
Getting used to it
Somehow it shines a light on me

Exit
Where's it?

It's closing
Cruel to me
Getting used to it
Somehow it shines a light on me
