Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
(Oh love you love you)
Oh love you
Oh love you love you

You woo
You woo
You woo
You woo

Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
(Oh love you love you)
Oh love you
Oh love you love you

I need just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

I need just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

I need just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

I need just a little more
Just a little more

Just a little more

Is it because of the wind, is it just my mood?
You know, for no reason, you
Is it because of the lights, is it just the music?
Feeling like this, you

You and I are sitting across each other tonight
And our glasses are about half empty
The angle of my chin that rests in my hand
Keeps leaning toward you
Especially today
It's 90, 100 degrees to you
Suddenly, I feel so breathtaking

Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
Maybe maybe maybe maybe

Did I say this before? I don't remember
Maybe I'm a little drunk boy
Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
(To to to tonight)
It's not only the moon that's
Rising and tilting

Pour just a little more
I need just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

Pour just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

Feeling like this
It's probably the music
It's a song I chose for you
I've been singing it for ya
We're sitting across each other, time is too precious
So I gathered my hands and prayed
I need just a little more

The clock is tilting
Like a Salvador Dali painting
I'm afraid you'll disappear
My heartbeat got faster
Girl you give me that vibes tho
Not any other girls around me

If it's not with you
I don't even watch movies
Every day
I'm only lingering near you
Like that moon
Even if I seem pitiful
I like having you in my days
So who cares if I seem pitiful?
What can I say
To make you more comfortable?
I tried saying a lot of things
But there are too many things
That I want to give you
So I should stop right here
Though I don't want to

Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
Maybe maybe maybe maybe
Did I say this before? I don't remember
Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
(To to to tonight)
Rising and tilting

You're the one who made it impossible
For me to act like I'm fine
You woo

Time keeps ticking
We've gotten a bit closer
Right now, you woo

Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
Maybe maybe maybe maybe
Did I say this before? I don't remember
Oh love you love you
Love you love you babe
(To to to tonight)

Pour just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

Pour just a little more
Just a little more
Just a little more

Pour just a little more
Just a little more

Pour just a little more
Just a little more

Just a little more
