

A Boy Like Me

Space

Slippery eels in cuban heels
Overfriendly with their heels
Metrosexuals with plucked eyebrows
Would they ever keep them out?

Would you give a home to a boy like me?
I could live in a home with a girl like you
It might be a man-made fantasy
So would you give a home to a boy like me?
Boy like me

Vagabonds and malcontents
They would never pay their rent
Layabouts with screaming kids
We all know that they're just fads

So would you give a home to a boy like me?
I could live in a home with a girl like you
It might be a man-made fantasy
So would you give a home to a boy like me?

Would you give a home to a boy like me?
I could live in a home with a girl like you
It might be a man-made fantasy
So would you give a home to a boy like me?
Boy like me
