

Feline

Space

I follow all your pawprints
They led me to your simple den
Shred my clothes and bite my hands
I bow to all your dark demands
You are delicious
You're the panther black and sleek
Just pray I'm yours always to keep
In shadows you will keep me
Til I earn the right to see
You are ferocious

Feline, feline
Show me all your claws
Feline, feline
Then kiss me where I'm sore
Feline, feline
Show me all your claws
Feline, feline
Then kiss me where I'm sore

If some fool tai chis my arse
And I end up on broken glass
You will scratch and you will bite
They'd wish they'd never caused a fight
You are my saviour
I'm the only one to see you
In the flesh that you were born
For my eternal gratefulness
You show that hateful scorn
You are so righteous

Feline, feline
Show me all your claws
Feline, feline
Then kiss me where I'm sore
Feline, feline
Show me all your claws
Feline, feline
Then kiss me where I'm sore

You're the panther black and sleek
Just pray I'm yours always to keep
In shadows you will keep me
Til I earn the right to see
You are ferocious
If some fool tai chis my arse
And I end up on broken glass
You will scratch and you will bite
They'd wish they'd never caused a fight
You are my saviour

Feline, feline
Show me all your claws
Feline, feline
Then kiss me where I'm sore
Feline, feline
Show me all your claws

Feline, feline
Then kiss me where I'm sore

Please kiss me where I'm sore
Kiss me where I'm sore
Oh kiss me where I'm sore
Please kiss me where I'm sore
