

If I Ever

Space

If I never see your face again
I will be happy to the end
So don't ask me to be your friend
Don't even ask me to pretend

But now I'm sure
You've stole my soul
So why should I forgive you?
I've been failing with a mountain
You left me to rot in hell, now
I'm going to haunt
Haunt you to hell

If I ever see the sun again

I will be grateful till the end
So don't expect me to give in
To something I will never win
Win

But now I'm sure
You've stole my soul
So why should I forgive you?
I've been failing with a mountain
You left me to rot in hell, now
I'm going to haunt
Haunt you to hell
