Oh, Dinosaur

Spacehog

Woke up this morning, rubbed the sleep out of my eyes
Put on the tele, we had toast and waffle fries
Dropped off my kid, he made me walk a block behind
When I realized

Oh, dinosaur [x4]

Ex-wife disowns me, she says I got no balls
My booking agent, he just don't return my calls
I tried to write this song, but it don't want to flow
And all this I know

Oh, dinosaur [x4]

Turn on the TV just to see who is who Can't seem to work it out
I feel as though I am through
They'll only play the song so they can laugh at you

Oh, dinosaur [x4]

Do you fall in love with every one you meet
Do you lock the door and throw away the key
Do you feel okay, just somewhat incomplete
And tired of it all
