

Closure

SpaceMan Zack

I know she won't love me when it's over
She knows she won't love me when she's sober (yeah)
I don't need a thing, that's what I told her
I don't wanna talk, fuck the closure

She wanna party
Offered [?] a molly she touch'in my body
She wanna get higher
She takin' the drugs she call me the plug like I'm the supplier
We fucking for hours forgettin' the world we playing with fire (yeah)

I hope we don't burn out
I hope we don't get hurt (yeah)
I hope we don't burn out
I hope I don't get hurt (yeah-yeah-ah)

I got a couple bitches coming through to my place
Said they love me they don't even know my real name
I might fuck em keep the demons at a distance
Baby I don't wanna feel like this is real pain
I've been crying out for help but they don't hear me callin' I' ve been looking for myself in this misery darling [?]
I'm gunna let her use me every time she wanna cum
Ima fuck her every night to keep my heart numb

So baby hold me tonight got the syrup you like I mix it with th e sprite (yeah)
You know I can't feel a thing with your hands on my skin but I still hate this life (yeah)

I'm looking for closure need you one more time need
To feel your legs around my head gripping your thighs
Wish I knew why this shit ain't work out right
Cause bitch I fucking loved you I don't know why
But I've got a new girl now and she know just what I like
And she tastes so sweet just like strawberry wine
Baby girl in all black with her heart cold as ice
And if we fuck around and fall in love

I hope we don't burn out
I hope we don't get hurt, (yeah)
I hope we don't burn out
I hope I don't get hurt, (yeah-yeah-ah)
