SpaceMan Zack

First off, let me say I'm back with a new thang
'Member old days, need a belt, get a shoestring
Now I hit the store and I cop all the new things
Double G on the buckle, the bag come from Louis V
Everybody hit my line when the crew sing
Pockets gettin' fat when I rap, they like who is he?
Rappers gettin' mad, steal a fan like I'm [?]
Cash rules everything around like its Wu-Tang
Who say I ain't blowin' up, they a dumb hoe
I've been doin' this since a jit havin' fun hoe
I know, I am the one they want at the next show
Jump on stage and they scream like I brought a gun home

I don't give a fuck bout the shit you on
My liquor strong and my money tall
I made this 100, then I spend it all
I make it back every time I talk

Yeah, every time I talk
Yeah, yeah, every time I, talk
Yeah, yeah

Okay, I've been going crazy as mothafuckin' bitch
Just so I could put the Rollie on the mothafuckin' wrist
Hit the bank withdrawal buy my momma a new whip
And I still got money, man I think I'm gettin' rich
I've been flexin' now when I'm so damn cold
Feelin' weaker baby, like I just sold my soul
Get the fuck out the way, 'cause I'm so damn cold
Ain't nobody that can stop me when I'm on my road

I don't give a fuck bout the shit you on
My liquor strong and my money tall
I made this 100, then I spend it all
I make it back every time I talk

Uhm, but did you see that dude on Twitter?
I just like checked Twitter and saw this dude and he's talking shit

And my shit's wack and like nobody takes me seriously
