

INVINCIBLE

SpaceMan Zack

Ooh, yeah
Everything 'bout you
I hate everything, everything 'bout

Bitch, I'm back, I was gone, they can't hold me back
Got a couple more shelves for these platinum plaques
I been going through the mud, ran to hell and back
Got my tunnel vision on, I'ma chase these racks
They try to keep me down but I'ma move on
I cut a couple out 'cause they just do me wrong
I got my brothers now, like it's been too long
And bitch I'm busting out, I gotta prove something, yeah

Now I start rolling around in my city, nobody round can fuck with me
This shit will probably kill me, I cannot stop I'm addicted
I'll never stop if I'm living, this shit is not what I wanted
Everything good in the moment, tearing me down in the conscience

Ooh, yeah
I hate everything 'bout me
But I still love you

Bitch, I'm back, I was gone, they can't hold me back
Got a couple more shelves for these platinum plaques
I been going through the mud, ran to hell and back
Got my tunnel vision on, I'ma chase these racks

I got my brothers now, like it's been too long
And bitch I'm busting out, I gotta prove something, yeah
