

Mannequin

SpaceMan Zack

These feelings never end
Too much now I can't go to sleep
That's 40 days and 40 nights I haven't blinked
This evil kill me dead
I'm sewed back together carefully
Count every stitch upon my lips, I'll never speak

I'm just a mannequin, I've never been
Alive to feel the rain fall on my skin
So dress me up and strip me down, it's all a show
I'll be your mannequin to bend again
Then throw me out when you break all my limbs
So take me in and kick me out, they'll never know

They'll never know
So dress me up and strip me down, it's all a show
They'll never know
So take me in and kick me out, they'll never know

Yeah, heart made of glass and the bones are just plastic
Careful at first cause you don't wanna scratch it
Once you get bored, throw me out in the trash
Then pick me back up when you feelin' nostalgic
Tell me to jump and I'll jump to the moon
Whatever the fuck that you want me to do
We get the love that we pick and we chose
But I get the love that I'm scared I could lose

I'm just a mannequin, I've never been
Alive to feel the rain fall on my skin
So dress me up and strip me down, it's all a show
I'll be your mannequin to bend again
Then throw me out when you break all my limbs
So take me in and kick me out, they'll never know

I'm just a mannequin, I've never been
Alive to feel the rain fall on my skin
So dress me up and strip me down, it's all a show
I'll be your mannequin to bend again
Then throw me out when you break all my limbs
So take me in and kick me out, they'll never know
