Not Ur Type

SpaceMan Zack

Let's go

You pass me by, I get it
'Cause I'm just not the one
But I wonder why? Forget it
I'll be anything you want
But I'm not your type
Everyone would judge you so I lie
Say this doesn't hurt

Now I
I don't understand what I'm supposed to do
I'll never be enough but I love you
You don't know my name, no
It's cool

You're passing by, the minutes
That I could take your hand
But it's not mine, I'm living
Wondering what life is like behind
Those eyes that make me weak
And I'm falling to my knees
But you will never see

Now I
I don't understand what I'm supposed to do
I'll never be enough but I love you
You don't know my name, no
It's cool

I'm sick and tired, I'm sick and tired
Now I can't breathe, I think I'm dying
But you don't see, ain't never will
'Cause you don't know who I am

Now I
I don't understand what I'm supposed to do
I'll never be enough but I love you
You don't know my name, no
It's cool
