

Self Harm

SpaceMan Zack

Slow drip, got me tripping
Cold lips, I've been kissing
I can't show you what you're missing
I'm so far gone I'll just fade in the distance
Because I know what you did
You just went right back to him
And you think to tell me you thought of me
Didn't think it'd be the cost of me
Suppress, repress against my head
Suppress me with lead, till I'm all bled out in my bed
The [?] has bottles of glass in some plastic
They'll help me sleep well in my casket
You said you're sorry but who gives a hell
I'll bring out this sorrow like it's gonna help
'Cause now you're just thirsty, you don't think I can tell
But come try to hurt me I'll do it myself
I'll do it myself, myself
I'll do it myself, myself
I'll do it myself, myself
I'll do it myself, myself

You tryin' to hurt me, but I do it on my own
Now I can't feel my bones
They're breaking as I fall, as I fall

Well lately I've been thinkin' 'bout (lately I've been thinking 'bout)
Everything in life that'll kill me young
Lately I've been missing out (lately I've been missing out)
Sleep don't come when you're on a run
And I've been screamin' out to God
I've been looking for someone
Help me get through all this shit
But they left me all alone
I don't need your fuckin' love
I don't need your fuckin' hate
I don't need no fuckin' pay
Deal with shit in my own way

Now I don't want your help
I do it by myself

You said you're sorry but who gives a hell
I'll bring out this sorrow like it's gonna help
'Cause now you're just thirsty, you don't think I can tell
But come try to hurt me I'll do it myself
I'll do it myself, myself
I'll do it myself, myself
I'll do it myself, myself
I'll do it myself, myself

I'll do it myself (myself) yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'll do it myself (myself)
