SpaceMan Zack

Baby, just run up the bank with me
Close your eyes 'cause you hate to see
Everything in this world is made of me
I lost hope and it's plain to see
But you ain't ever giving up on me (Woah)
Hold me down when I get ugly (Woah)
I know my head love to fuck with me (Woah)
But I want you to live it up with me
I spend a hundred years with you

Everything is not the same anymore, I know, yeah
Everything is gonna change sometimes when you grow, yeah
But you've been around for the pain and hate that I hold, yeah
Just tell me it's gonna be all okay before I go

Days are not the same as the days as a kid
We got the money in the bank but no time we can spend
Every day I feel like letting go, nothing to give
But when you tell me you love me, I got something to live for Yeah, I love you
Do you still love me?
Yeah, I want you
Over everything

Just run up the bank with me
Close your eyes 'cause you hate to see
Everything in this world is made of me
I lost hope and it's plain to see
But you ain't ever giving up on me (Woah)
Hold me down when I get ugly (Woah)
I know my head love to fuck with me (Woah)
But I want you to live it up with me
I spend a hundred years with you
