

Feels Better

Spacey Jane

I'm always right
Except when I'm alone with you
And we always fight
Except when I'm at home with you
I'm sick of the time
It won't heal a thing it already blew
And you're sick and tired
Of waking up at 5 with no view

I've got no friends
I'm hopeless
But you
You're in the back of my head-
Ache for God's sake it's true
I feel empty without you
And I'm lonely without you
And I'm scared without you
But it feels better without you

And we talk away
We talk as if we don't care
And we threw it away
By thinking it would fall into place
And I feel like I'm too young
To ever know the right shit to say
And I know that I'm too young
To ever make it work, make it okay, yeah

I've got no friends
I'm hopeless
But you
You're in the back of my head-
Ache for God's sake it's true
I feel empty without you
And I'm lonely without you
And I'm scared without you
But it feels better without you
