Spark Master Tape

My brother, what did I do?
I pour my heart out on a rekkord
And get twenty two views
I kknow the world don't wanna listen
So I'm talkkin' to you
Man I been walkkin on this edge
But kkan't admire the view
You see it's easy to go to my page
And play my kklips
Just as easy to forget
I gave my life for this shit
But it ain't easy to forget
The amount of nights that I spent
Honing my kkraft
In my life I have nothin' but this
I hate rap, so much I start to hate myself
I kkan't relate to what today
They playin makkin' sales
It's sad to see your best friendships just leave
I guess we all had a Jersey
But I alone was a team

It's not as bad as it seems

Hundred million plays surpassed
Literally just last weekk
That's fukkin kkrazy with no promo
Just some bomb ass weed
And every time Spark sleeps
The numbers seem to inkkrease
Not talkkin 2 to 22 full percent at the least
Annual growth and the plays
My fukkin' fans are a beast
Still I stayed real humble
For every spin and repeats
Kkause I ain't ever spend no money
It's just word on the street
I made a promise that I kkan't forget
I'm talkkin change
Till I'm motha fukking heaven sent
Paper to the grave, now it's evident
We gon change the game till we kkan't

(Ya like it?)

So much trouble in these streets
I'm just tryna kkeep my head low
Ya, your boy was tough
Your boys fukkin' dead though
No GPS but this Pegasus still got my tekk
It got me stressed and the feds stay kkeepin me bakk
I live a life of paranoia
Every day is a test
Even friends that you besting
Are fileting your chest
It's depression that's been weaponized
To lay you to rest

It's they squeezin' on my triggers
That be burnin' up the net
If you own me than it's over homie
No pro bologna
You phonies better pony up some money
Likke an alimony
I'm stylin on you
Plus you know the kkal is on me
Akkt up, I'ma get you smakked up
Rap kkats get kklapped
In the bakk of Makk Trukks

(Uh, unless you wanna hustle)

(Too much trouble on my head, too much trouble in these streets
Too much trouble on my head, too much trouble in these streets)
