

So Bad

Sparkle

I gotta get, over you
This I know
Like training wheels on a bicycle
Supposed to move on and find another lover
But I just can't to seem to let go, of you
I'm in a crazy space,
I'm dealing with it every day
Every smile, every life
Reminds me of you, of you

But the constant memories
Are taking over me
And they just won't fade from my mind
I try to deal with it with anger
But that turned into pain
Started to feel like it's impossible
To keep from going insane
But you can't help who you love
You can't help who you hate
It might be a bad choice of words
But that's what I wanna say

You hurt me so bad, so bad
Baby, baby, bad, baby, yeah
You hurt me so bad, so bad
Baby, baby, bad, baby, yeah

I know I should love again
This I know, but my heart cold
Like a popsicle
If I could spend one more day
I know it'd probably be the same
I wake up alone, oh, oh
Honestly, a lot of shit,
I should be thanking you for
Cause a lot of things have changed
Since I've known you
Hurt so bad, but it made me stronger
Inside, when I fell like I'm incapable
Of loving again

But the constant memories
Are taking over me
And they just won't fade from my mind
I try to deal with it with anger
But that turned into pain
Started to feel like it's impossible
To keep from going insane
But you can't help who you love
You can't help who you hate
It might be a bad choice of words
But that's what I wanna say

You hurt me so bad, so bad
Baby, baby, bad, baby, yeah
You hurt me so bad, so bad
Baby, baby, bad, baby, yeah

Cause a lot of things have changed
Since I've known you
Hurt so bad, but it made, made, made me stronger
Made, made me stronger

Cause a lot of things have changed
Since I've known you
Hurt so bad, but it made me stronger
