

My Devotion

Sparks

My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Got your name written on my shoe
And I'm thinkin' of gettin' a tattoo
My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Days I do not sing this song
You'll still know my feeling's strong

Everywhere we walk, though in a crowd, there's no one else
Every Sunday morning I'm there praying for your health
Single-minded may be boring, most folks would agree
Though the word's pretentious, I'd still call it destiny

My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Got your name written on my shoe
And I'm thinkin' of gettin' a tattoo
My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Days I do not sing this song
You'll still know my feeling's strong

You may be devoted to your country, God, or fly
Maybe you've a passion for a hobby or your Jag
Maybe you love work although I'm puzzled why you would Maybe it's your home team, someday, someday they'll be good

My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Got your name written on my shoe
And I'm thinkin' of gettin' a tattoo
My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Days I do not sing this song
You'll still know my feeling's strong

Through all the years
Rent in arrears
You never cared
Can't help but stare
You've never changed
Hair rearranged
That, though, is all
Time's seemed to stall

My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do
Got your name written on my shoe
And I'm thinkin' of gettin' a tattoo
My devotion to you
Is 'bout all that I do

You've never changed

That, though, is all

You've never changed
Hair rearranged
That, though, is all
