We Go Dancing

Sparks

Who says we don't have our fun above the DMZ
We assemble daily and we dance incessantly
And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Pyongyang is a-rockin', missiles driving through the square
We go dancing proudly, legs are kicking in the air
And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

We have got the greatest DJ in the whole wide world
Kim Jong Un is what they call him
Man, he rocks our world
As we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Skrillex, maybe Diplo, they've got nothing on our dude
Look at how the crowd is grooving, he is one bad dude
And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Dance!
Dance!

And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Dance!
Dance!

And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Chicks are together and all of them pack a gun
Fashion the latest and watch as they move as one
And they are dancing, dancing
They are dancing, dancing

I got a baby who kills it in olive drab
She is what decadent Westerners might call "fab"
As she goes dancing, dancing
She goes dancing, dancing

We don't have a lot of moves, but our one move is tight
We don't need no YouTube, Kim Jong Un don't like their vibe
And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Sometimes I get injured, man, it's harder than it looks
I just plow on through it, I don't want no angry looks
And I go dancing, dancing
I go dancing, dancing

No one in the world is dancing near as good as we
No one has the discipline, the choreography
And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing

Dance!
Dance!
Dance!

And we go dancing, dancing
We go dancing, dancing
Dance!
