

Dreams

Speaker Knockerz

Uh, yeah
Uh, yeah

Living my life and I'm chasing all my dreams
Remember way back to when I was 16
Riding the low Civic with the high beams
And all these bags, yeah, they full of Supreme
Remember tryna look fresh and act clean
Just so I can mask all the problems in me
Chasing all these checks so that we are free
Yeah, then at some point realized that this just ain't for me

Yeah, remember young, had this girl up in my head
Couldn't get aroused so I ran up on my bread
Tried to focus shit but God had another plan
Wonder what would happen if I had another chance
Going through some shit, wish that I could understand
Coming from a place that I cannot even stand
Went to hit her back but she never hit me back
So I hit the dial tone and I put her on the rack
Gotta distract myself with other girls
Even though I thought that this one would be the world
But you live and learn so that's really part of life
And if you can't comprehend then you gotta roll the dice, yeah

Living my life and I'm chasing all my dreams
Remember way back to when I was 16
Riding the low Civic with the high beams
And all these bags, yeah, they full of Supreme
Remember tryna look fresh and act clean
Just so I can mask all the problems in me
Chasing all these checks so that we are free
Yeah, then at some point realized that this just ain't for me,
yeah
