

I read you but I don't take you in
I laugh at you then put you in the bin
The ads are good though you don't vet them well
They're only published to make your coffers swell
Self Righteous, MRR Rules, MRR Rules

Ok, so you carry the flag
But you alignate and the movement sags
Corporate companies disinterest you
Settle for less if you want to

You've got it good in the USA
American dream rebels having your say
Easy for you laying down the law
Try selling your shit to the real life poor
