

CAUGHT IN A CRAZE

Speed

Blinded by the stars
Another fallacy with no heart
Another game to you, come here to spit and chew
On what we've built up from the start
Reduced you and me to be
Mere enemies in the pit
Too thick to see, this is family
On some higher IQ shit (Ooh)

I'll sharpen my blade
While you're caught in a craze
Sharp tools keep my people full
While the vultures take and take (Mosh)

Caught in a craze
I stay two steps forward
While you're studying the shadows (Studying the shadows)
You can try to fake the walk
But with no path inside
Then nothing ever fucking matters
New skin on the snake, but we still see you

I'll sharpen my blade
While you're caught in a craze
Don't speak too soon
You'll get yours too
Hahaha

I stay standing for the long way home
I stay standing for the long way home
Caught in a craze
