

EVERYBODY BLEEDS

Speed

A cold snake squirms harder when it's head's jarred
Show no face, know your place, while I push past
Fear monger, no heart
Blindsided by your hate from the start

Fear becomes hate
But in the end don't we all bleed the same?

Break you but I won't hate you
In my eyes you're a snake I don't blame you
Scared thru and you let it shape you
Shook bones, no home that'll take you

Which side you gonna sow your seed?
The cold truth is everybody bleeds
War ready, I stand true
When fear turns to hate everybody loses

Fear becomes hate
But in the end don't we all bleed the same?
