

I MEAN IT

Speed

Sweet talker, but your whispers are cold
Every second motherfucker tries to act like they know (They don't)
The player is lost, the watcher is lucid
I say what's in my veins so there's no way to confuse it

I, I mean it
Say what I mean, mean what I say
I, believe it
Turn my back and walk away

So blind, can't you see where you run?
If the mirror shows nothing you'll shoot for anyone
Like lead to a bullet, and a bullet in your head
What's done has been done, the dog has been fed

I, I mean it
Say what I mean, mean what I say
I, believe it
Turn my back and walk away
Every time, don't make me say

Say it, mean it
Every single time I say
Say it (Say it)
Mean it (Mean it)
Say it, mean it
When I say, I mean it "fuck you"
Fuck you
