

THE FIRST TEST

Speed

Move it

Feel the violence, smell the fumes, see the fear in their eyes
I'll spark the flame, be the boom, help these fools realise
Life is ugly, life is beautiful
With nowhere to hide, find peace being truthful

The first test: say "fuck the rest"
Born in our own league
Test two: live the style that you choose
My life, my attitude
The first test: say "fuck the rest"
One story is only one truth
With two eyes closed, we're incompatible
Solo, so long, that's the path that I choose

Scream
