Phish Phood

Speedy Ortiz

Drove an hour to your house
In the middle of the evening
And all your lights were out

Parked to the side of your lawn
Hopped the fence into the front path
Broke your window with a rock

Turned the bathtub on
Let the water flood the downstairs
Then I stole your father's watch
Which was his father's

Crawled in your fresh-pressed sheets
Took all your mother's sleeping pills
And then I fell asleep
Til you came home and said to me

It's okay to love and hate
I love you something in between
You're no ghost you're just some kid
So why are all your songs so mean?

Oh I think I get what you mean
