

On My Skin

Spellblast

I finally met her
A beautiful taste
Her aura I faced
She broke down my tranquillity
The virginity of her eyes ready
To seduce my destiny.
Open my arms
I'd like to embrace you,
breathin' in the northern heart
Your scent an affliction
Your memory obsession,
Why didn't you leave me there?
Look at me fallen in love
With my wings above you
Just a dying creature
In my veins there's a passio
Moved by your freezin' blow

Land of wild dreams, land of soul sins
Take me by your side
You make me feel, your frozen will
Shaking my skin

Oh, Ocean's creature, I know I'm not yours
Far is our ancient nature,
But I can't hide for longer,
I wanna feel you once more...
'cause I've fallen in love
You can't refuse me, oh no...
Only a token of affection
'cause a grave makes you:
I can't follow my sheer instinct

Land of wild dreams...

In a calm, lonely night,
You really caught me in your fairy trap
D'you remember the lake, flat?
And the magic you left in my eyes
That image, like a veil
Turning page of an old book,
Shining melodies I took
By the starriness, I'm your slave

Land of wild dreams...
