Spice

I'm captured
I'm broken-hearted
Why me?

I can't believe
What I got into
I trusted you
Now I need a rescue
How could you be so cruel
Use me and taking me for a fool?
The act of even being ridiculed
Can't wait to hear, "Overruled"

Oh, I wanna be free
Oh, I wanna be free
Captured
Captured, oh

I gave you my all, gave you all of me
You manipulate, ruin my destiny
The situation alone is killing me
Slowly deteriorating my sanity
Life is lesson, you're my teacher
God alone know I thought we had a bright future
You smile in my face, you're a fake creature
Fabricating these lies just like a vulture
365 days in a year, multiply that by 10
This is not fair
You buried my dreams, my entire carer
Cause I gave you my heart, you did not care

Oh, I wanna be free
Oh, I wanna be free
Captured
Captured, oh
(repeat)

Right now you have me in captivation
I will never, ever trust a man inna relation
Ship segregation and aggravation
Manipulation, hurtful situation
Waited so long, I think things would have changed
Every month and every year, you promise rearrange
Did someone pay you? Cause I find it strange
Come out of my book, you have a couple page

Oh, I wanna be free
Oh, I wanna be free
Captured
Captured, oh
