

Hey

Spiderbait

Hey
I don't remember my name
And if you think that I'm sane
My personality's out again (??)

Hey
I'll think of something to say
It really isn't my day
And I apologise in each and every single way

No
I'm never ready to go
And they will bet that I'm slow
But then they tell me I'm wonderful

So
I'm very happy to show
That everyone that I know
Is living the tale of woe
