I can see it clear, there's something going on,
Think it true blown from the stereo,
I noticed yours, is big enough for two, yeah,
This scene won't, so I'll tell it to,
I'm gonna let her down,
Let her once again,
Ohh right,
You can tell me it, and who you are,
So don't tell me, you know all those,
I noticed yours, is big enough for two,
So won't you listen what I'm tellin' you,
I want to her down,
I need her once again,
Just want to let it down,
I need it one more time,
Ooooooo hoo hoo
One more time...
One more time...
I can see it clear, there's something going on,
Think it true blown from the stereo,
And I noticed yours, is big enough for two, yeah,
It's no different from me and you
I want to her down,
I need her once again,
I want to her down,
I need it one more time,
Ooooooo hooo,
Alright
