Grade A

spill tab

I'll never be your grade A chase
With the perfect face like some perfect prey, and I
I'll never be a moonlight date
On a picnic plate, we don't stay out late
I've been running around like all of the town
I rather like it that way
You've been running your mouth like all of the time
You're on the edge of steady

I've been watching for a while
You probably think you're clever now
I always feel Grade A, kid

Nah fuck that picture-perfect
My hips are hurting like Booker T
I take off my shirt like wrestlers
My piledriver not impressing her
So I grab my shirt like
It ain't love if you can't return mine
Say it's love but you can't be sure, right?
Faded, you fit off the framing
I see better days when I'm without my ooh-wah, ooh-wah-ah
Lady, you driving me crazy
Why you gotta frame it every time I...?

I've been watching for a while
You probably think you're clever now
You can always shoulder wishing you were older than you are Probably think you're clever now

You can always shoulder wishing you were older than you are Probably think you're clever now
