Maybe I should stay out
Try and clear my head space, no doubt
I'm reading all your word games
They tell me you got big shit to sort out

I didn't even wanna start this in the first place
And fuck you, being honest is my worst trait
I would rather try and dry off in a hurricane
Than be the one to give you back your first name

Hanging with your head down
Harsh with me, but angry when you're left out
I know you like me, tread on this lightly
Speak up politely, you don't wanna get bruised

I didn't even wanna start this in the first place
And fuck you, being honest is my worst trait
I would rather try and dry off in a hurricane
Than be the one to give you back your first name
I didn't even wanna start this in the first place
