

wet veneer

spill tab

I turn the water off and wash my hair
Gonna skate across the wet veneer
Put a towel down and press my skin to solid ground
'Cause when nobody's watching

I'm gonna break apart the tiles with kisses
Squeeze my limbs in all the black abysses
They won't find me, just the water running in the bathroom
Ah, ah

When nobody sees me
Nobody sees me
Is that okay with you?
Do you agree?

Mmm, do I agree with you every time you ask me?
Say it was my idea
Pour your gospel on me, sweet like honey
When it's true and when it's all I feel

I turn the water off and wash my hair
Gonna skate across the wet veneer
Put a towel down and press my skin to solid ground

Say you don't need me
Say you don't need me
I'll disappear
Do you agree with that?
