

Window

spill tab

I get used to ignoring
Closing the door and
Opening yours since
You've been clueless and honest
I wouldn't know the First thing to say to you when you're here

I'll push away like I did like when I had you clear
It's the crux of the nature to crave what is not near

(I think I'm done)
(I think I'm done)
Having to hold your hand and keep you over the water
(I think I'm done)
(I think I'm done)
Having to hold your hand and keep you over

Open up the window by my bed
Hoping you'll come crawling in like back then
Open up a window in my head
I'm hoping you'll infect me like you did back then

Did back then

I'll push away like I did when I had you clear
It's the crux of my nature to crave what is not near

(I think I'm done)
(I think I'm done)
Having to hold your hand and keep you over the water
(I think I'm done)
(I think I'm done)
Having to hold your hand and keep you over
(I think I'm done)
(I think I'm done)
Having to hold your hand and keep you over the water
(I think I'm done)
(I think I'm done)
Having to hold your hand and keep you over
