

Let's Just Rock Again

Spinal Tap

Just like Van Winkle
Waking up in clover
Even though we're old and grey
This feels like starting over
Seems like forever
Or was it just yesterday?
We broke up together
But now we're here to stay
So, we raise the scepter
And don our bejeweled crowns
Beholding that you missed us when
We just weren't around

Tick tock
It's not too late to rock
We've mounted our mighty steeds, yet once again
Like men
Feels
Like fate
There's no time left to waste
Let's ride these horses straight to hell
'Til it's time to say farewell
Say when
Amen
Let's just rock again
Let's just rock again

Our eyes have blurred
Though we've endured
We still see a spark
Though our ears have gone bum
And our minds are numb
Our hearts now have stretch marks
The fine young lasses have all gone
Long ago faded away
Now it's bottle-dyed coyotes
And we're Dorian Gray
So, let's have a play

Tick tock
It's not too late to rock
We've mounted our mighty steeds, yet once again
Like men
Like fate
Let's ride these horses straight to hell
'Til it's time to say farewell
Say when
Amen
Let's just rock again

Let's just rock again
