I've reached this point
 With fear my only fuel
  I found my faith
 With nothing, nothing to do
  Run from you...you're binding me in sin
  You've got to...
  I drowned my left side
With lies I see as real
 I push what doesn't move
I keep forgetting what is real
 Run from you...you're binding me in sin
 You've got to run
 I keep on running from you
 Keep on fighting me, come on
  Slipper
 Whore...you fuckin' whore
I've reached this point with fear my only fuel
  Run from you...you're binding me in sin
 You've got to run
 I keep on running from you
  Keep on fighting me, come on
  Slipper
 Whore...you fuckin' whore
